James D. Quisenberry

2015 JVCOCC Veteran of the Year

Recipient On behalf

U.S. Military Noncommissioned Officers Corps

Jim was born on July 3, 1948 in Waynesboro, Virginia and in the early 50's his family relocated to Cleveland, Ohio. He graduated from West Technical High School in 1966, enlisted in the Army Infantry Airborne that December. In 1967, after Basic, AIT, and Jump School, he was assigned to Bravo Co. 1st Battalion 508th Infantry 82nd Airborne Division, and with an alert ready force was deployed to the Congo. Upon his return from Africa, he completed Sniper School and Red Eye Missile Gunner School. In February of 1968 he arrived in Vietnam, was assigned to Delta Co. 3rd Battalion 503rd Infantry 173rd Airborne Brigade. He was promoted to Sergeant (E-5), served as rifle squad leader until medically evacuated that September. He was a patient at various hospitals for the rest of his enlistment and discharged from Valley Forge Hospital in December 1969.

Upon returning home and convalescing, Jim started working as a skilled laborer and attended Cuyahoga Community College at night. In 1974 he began working for The Illuminating Company, First Energy Corp. as a Transmission Lines Helper on overhead transmission lines and towers plus various maintenance duties. He retired in 2006 as Journeyman Lineman with almost 32 years of service between the Transmission and Overhead Line Departments while a member of the Utility Workers Union of America/AFL-CIO Local 270. After retirement Jim was voted an honorary member of the National UWUA/AFL-CIO. He then went to work for Synergetic Design, an Emergency Storm Assessor, on an on call basis. He now works part time for The First Federal of Lakewood Bank.

Even while working and going to school, Jim immersed himself in serving his community and fellow veterans and their families. From 1971-73, he volunteered as a Scout Master with his boyhood Buckeye Council Boy Scouts of America Troop 38 in Cleveland, Ohio – leaving with inner city youth lifelong character building lessons. From there he went on to serve with the Lakewood Jaycees, including as Board Member, and in 1976 was honored as Jaycee of the Year, served as Co-Chair of the group's Lakewood 4th of July Parade and implemented improvements still in use today. The youth continued to benefit from Jim's caring spirit when in 1986 he volunteered and was for 2 years an Assistant Coach for Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) Flag Football in his city. Jim, as a delegate from VVA Chapter #15 for over 15 years, has also served on the City of Lakewood Veterans committee involved in the planning/staging of Lakewood's Memorial Day & Veterans Day programs each year as well as a committee of local veterans, city leadership and staff, and friends in the community that spearheaded a major renovation of the Lakewood Park Veterans Memorial.

Jim continued to be committed to volunteer activities, many in a leadership position that resulted in their greater visibility and number of volunteers attracted due to his exemplary dedication and people skills.

He got active in the veteran community in 1982 when he joined the Disabled American Veterans local chapter. In 1984 he joined American Legion Post 385 and also joined the Greater Cleveland Chapter 15 of the Vietnam Veterans of America. In 1986, his experiences with the reception that Vietnam Veterans received from previous generations veterans, motivated Jim to help establish the April 30th End of the Vietnam War Ceremony which is continuing today. He was a President of the chapter for 5 terms, served on as a board member at large, served for 25 years on the Honor and Color Guards, and has continued to be an active and committed volunteer for many chapter events and fund raisers. Also in 1986 Jim became a member of a Veterans of Foreign Wars local Post and currently belongs to Post 2533. Jim's active association with veterans organizations grew to include the 173rd Airborne Brigade Association, the 82nd Airborne Division Association, the Catholic War Veterans, Polish Legion of American Veterans and the Northeast Ohio Joint Veterans Honor Guard - with many of them he holds life memberships.

Since 1987 he has been committed to establishing a special place to honor together those who died from Cuyahoga County during our wars since 1899 (Spanish American War), he was a co-founder, a Past President, and continues as a trustee of Greater Cleveland Veterans Memorial Inc., (was Greater Cleveland Vietnam Veterans Memorial Inc.), with initial rededication of the 1964 Marshall Fredericks "Fountain of Eternal Life" Veterans Memorial Plaza commemorated in 2004 and a 50th anniversary of the original dedication and 10th anniversary rededication commemorated in 2014. Details/Honor Roll at www.clevelandvetmemorial.org.

In 1988 Jim contributed to the successful and memorable North Coast Vietnam Veterans Coalition "Vietnam Veterans Reunion" in Cleveland, Ohio as the Chairman of the Parade Committee.

Jim has served on Veteran countywide and regional organizations for over two decades, the Joint Veterans Council of Cuyahoga County (JVCOCC) [www.jvcocc.org] and the Memorial Association of Greater Cleveland [www.mdaogc.org] and had held various offices including President of each, he remains a dedicated volunteer each year with those who decorate our Veterans gravesites for Memorial Day. Jim has also volunteered for five Vietnam Veterans Memorial Moving Wall projects in the region.

He has actively participated in the efforts/events of civic organizations such as the Cleveland Grays (trustee), March of Dimes "Walk America" (volunteer with VVA Chapter15 workforce), The Cleveland Cultural Gardens (representative from JVCOCC to establish Liberty Veterans Honor Garden), and Citizens Vision [www.citizensvision.org] work with the preservation of our history and heritage on its Friends of the Hulett Ore Unloaders and Steamship William G. Mather committee, Committee For Responsible Waterfront Development, as well as the Friends of Whiskey Island committee.

On a state and national level Jim is co-founder and officer of Equal Honor For All [www.equalhonor.org], an organization formed to promote the establishing of a National Military Honor and Service Museum in our nation's capital that will present in one place with continuity our nations defenders and their families stories of sacrifice and service starting with the Revolutionary War, throughout our country's existence and into the future. Equal Honor For All is also actively promoting and supporting, through legislation in Congress, the establishment of a permanent national March 29th Vietnam Veterans Day commemoration.

Civic/Veteran honors bestowed on Jim included induction into the 2005 Class of the Ohio Veterans Hall of Fame and in 1994 the Cablevision's & Discovery Channel - Volunteer Award of Honor.

Jim's military awards/decorations include the Bronze Star, Purple Heart w/OLC, Air Medal, Army Commendation Medal w/v, Good Conduct Medal, National Defense Medal, Vietnam Service Medal w/3 Bronze Stars, Republic of Vietnam Gallantry Cross Unit Citation w/Palm, Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal w/1960 Bar, Combat Infantry Badge, Parachutist Badge, Expert Marksman Badge w/Auto Rifle Bar/Machine Gun Bar & Rifle Bar.

Jim married Donna in 1972. She just recently retired as a registered nurse from the pediatric unit at Fairview Hospital. They are blessed with two children, Jim and Angela, son-in-law Rocky and three grandchildren.
